Asa Gray (November 18, 1810 – January 30, 1888) is considered the most important American botanist of the 19th century. His Darwiniana was considered an important explanation of how religion and science were not necessarily mutually exclusive. Gray was adamant that a genetic connection must exist between all members of a species. He was also strongly opposed to the ideas of hybridization ...

There is no magic pill to cure dysphagia. There are plenty of medications that can cause difficulties eating and swallowing. Introduction: When we evaluate a person's eating and swallowing function, we have to put on our critical thinking caps, be detectives, and collaborate with the team. To determine if there may be a drug-induced dysphagia, we discuss symptoms and medications with the ...
