The workweek and weekend are the complementary parts of the week devoted to labor and rest, respectively. The legal working week (British English), or workweek (American English), is the part of the seven-day week devoted to labor. In most of the world, the workweek is from Monday to Friday and the weekend is Saturday and Sunday, but other divisions exist: for example, many countries observing a ...

The payment of overtime is required by both federal and state laws. The law requires most employers to pay overtime at the rate of 1.5 times the regular rate for all hours over 40 in the workweek. Special overtime rules apply to government agencies, hospitals, canneries and manufacturing establishments.
